A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he

Hereditary often coughs enough to make him sick at Consumptionhis stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."

STATE NEWS.

Wilson Echo: Heavily loaded trains peas through Wilson now, and the crop is only beginning to move.

Locomotive sparks seem to be get-ting in their work of destruction in various localities throughout the state.

Kaness City Gazette: Col. Thomas

Hiawatha.-Fire destroyed a livery stable, hotel and lumber yard at Ham-lm. The depot caught fire, but water from an engine tender saved it.

Atchison.-G. W. Stoker's carriage manufactory and shops, also a number of barns in the neighborhood, are burned. Several thousand dollars' loss.

Topeka Journal: Fred Vesper has two cherry trees in bloom in his yard near Auburndale. Many people have been out to see this rather curious phenomenon recently.

Leoti Kansan: Over 100 car-loads of wheat have been shipped from this county this season, which is closely estimated to be about one-fourth of the amount that was raised for ship-

Leavenworth Times: Five trained nurses have been added to the hospital force at the Soldiers' home. Two are from Milwaukee and three from New York. All are trained in the best schools.

Shawnee county levied a smaller rate for 1890 than for the preceding ten years, yet it comes out with over $40,000 surplus in the general revenue fund. For 1891 it is still lower, being the lowest ever made.

Hiawatha Democrat: The city council has made a contract with the Missouri Pacific railroad company to furnish them water at 8 cents per 1,000 gallons. The company will use all the way from 40,000 to 50,000 gallons a day.

A monument was unveiled at Winfield, Sunday, costing over $700. It was raised and pand for by the people in memory of a boy, Jimmie Morgan, who lost his life last summer in Walnut river, in trying to save the life of another boy.

Clifton Review: It is sad, but true, that many hundred bushels of apples around Clifton are going to waste. They he rotting on the ground for want of time to gather them up and lack of market to sell them in. Oh, for a drying establishment!

Eelleville.—The annual reunion of soldiers and sailors of Republic and adsoldiers and sailors of Republic and ad-joining counties closed last night with a rousing camp-fire. A large number of tents were pitched among the trees on the fine blue grass in the court house park, and splendid accommoda-tions were provided for all campers.

Lawrence.—Chancellor Snow has received a letter from Brazil asking if the chinch bug infection would apply to ants as well. The writer said that a variety of ants living in nests twenty feet across caused incalculable damage in that country and that a fortune awaited their successful extermination.

Cherokee Sentinel: A spark from a passing locomotive set the grass on fire in the orchard of Mrs. Stephen Millard, near the base line, and but for the timely assistance of the section hands the entire orchard of 600 trees would have been destroyed. Before the men succeeded in checking the fire about 120 trees loaded with apples were killed, the fruit being completely Paola.--A. J. Lucas, a well-to-do farmer and an old soldier, committed suicide, two miles north of town, by shooting himself in the left side with a revolver. He left home shortly after dimner, and not returning in the evening his family started to hunt for him and found him lying in a corn-field. His clothing was nearly burned from his body, having caught, it is supposed, from the discharge of the revolver.

Argentine item: The Consolidated Smelting company is preparing to make more improvements on its already ex-tensive plant. The plans have been made for the construction of a new office building, and work will be com-menced about December 1. The offices now occupied are the first the company built and are not large enough for present needs. The new building will be erected on the ground now covered with small tenement houses, which will be torn down.

Leneza on the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memplas railroad, eight miles north of this city, burning the large store build-ing occupied by F. L. Swift & Co., dealers in general merchandise, with the entire contents except a few hundred dol-lars, Gillet's blacksmith shop and con-tents and a vacant building adjoining. Swift & Co.'s loss will reach from $7,000 to $10,000 with $3,000 insurance. The loss to Gillett will reach $1,000 to $2,000, with no insurance.

Pleasanton.-The sixth annual reunion and the twenty-seventh anniver-sary of the battle of Mine creek beld a sary of the battle of Mine creek near a three days' meeting, with a rousing campfire. The battle occurred October 23, 1864, near here, and was the only battle fought in Kansas between regu-lar organized United States troops, commanded by Generals Curtis, Stuntand Pleasanton, and the confederate forces under Generals Price. Marmaforces under Generals Price, Marnisforces under Generals Price, Marmaduke and Cabell. Chaplain Gozuir of Iowa, Tim McCarthy, department commander of Kanssa, Colonel Coulter, Dick Blue and other patriotic speakers were present, and the old boys had a regular love feast. The town has been crowded with people.

Kaness City, Kan.—The different packing houses of this city are working more men now than at any time during the year. Armour's Packing company is working more than double its usual mber of men. It is working a night number of men. It is working a night and a day force on the cattle gang and killing nearly 2,000 head of cattle. In the hog department it is killing from 5,000 to 7,000 hogs daily. During the past month it has shipped from sixty to seventy-five cars of dressed meat per day. Fowler and Swift are crowded and running night and day force. and running night and day forces.

When the latter finish their long driveway they will then increase their force nearly 200 men in this one department. Moonlight, of Leavenworth, now has a comfortable job with the New York Life Insurance company.

STOCK AND FARM.

Greeley Republican: Charles Reed will put in about 300 acres of wheat. He expects to ship several car-loads of hogs this week.

Clyde Herald: U. J. Smith and his boys dug and put away 800 bushels of potatoes. They grew on five acres of ground. According to the price of po-tatoes and the land, the potatoes are worth the most.

Camarron New West: Probate Judge Armstrong has a field of volunteer wheat which he has harvested the past four years, without seeding or cultiva-tion. In the four years he has gathered sixty bushels to the acre.

From Palmer: Henry Myerhoff is a prosperous Washington county farmer, and resides near Palmer. He owns 500 acres. He estimates he will have from this year's crops: 7,000 bushels of wheat, upwards of 8,000 bushels of corn, and 5,000 bushels of barley, besides his other crops. He located there nine years ago, a poor man.

Ellsworth Reporter: Joe Obedal, on the Elkhorn, has thirty-six acres of corn, the best he says he has raised in twelve years. He thinks it will go seventyfive bushels to the scre. Edward Pickett has corn joining Ellsworth northwest that measures fifty to sixty bushels. The corn this year is a good thing all around; the price also promises to be Topeka.-Dr. Going state veterinarian, was called to the west part of Wyandotte county, near Edwardsville, Sunday, to look at some horses which were supposed to be suffering from glanders. Some weeks since horses owned by Nebraska jockeys were taken through that part of the county and a number of them traded off to farmers. The disease is supposed to have been brought by them, and before its nature was positively known a score of horses had become infected. The disease is unquestionably glanders, and according to the orders of the veterinarian all the infected stock was killed.

KANSAS CHURCHES,

Kansas City Gazette: The Rev. Phillip Krohn is getting $2,500 a year for preaching the gospel in Chicago.

The recent state Baptist convention decided to raise $50,000 for the Ottawa university. The Hiawatha Democrat says that John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil millionaire, has agreed to give $10,000 to the institution when the churches raise $40,000.

Wichita Eagle: A rather startling incident occurred at St. Paul's Methodist church Sabbath evening. During the services a bird flew into the building and successively from one light to another put out each with the flopping of its wings until but two lights re-mained. The sensation caused by the unusual incident created not a little talk and probably apprehension in the minds of those superstitiously in-

Emporia.—The Lutheran synod, now convened in this city, is one of unusual interest and encouragement. With all the difficulties of the past year, advance is shown by every report, and the actions of the present sessions are taking no backward steps. The roll of the synod shows forty-eight ministers, with thirty-seven pastorates. With great regret the aynod recognizes the removal from our bounds of the highly honored Rev. F. F. Dornblaser, who for seventeen years has been a successful worker in this western field. Rev. Dornblazer is a true soldier, never fearing to advance into the enemy's ranks, as he evidenced by four years of service in the Union army, and as one of the boys in blue who arrested the notorious Jeff Davis.

KANSAS RAILROADS.

Leavenworth Times: The Kansas Central now has a new steel track as far west as Winchester, and is making Olathe. - A $10,000 fire occurred at excellent time over the new steel.

Topeks Capital: The heads of de-partments of the departments of the Santa Fe shops are just beginning to see their way through the oceans of work that has been rushing them for the last four months. The force now employed is the largest in the history of these shops, and besides the thou-sands of cars turned out every month, an average of nearly an engine a day has been maintained.

Kansas City Gazette: A corps of civil engineers is at work in the First ward surveying for a right of way for the Inter-State Switch company's tracks. A local engineer is also pre-paring plans for a bridge across the Kaw river at Second street. This company proposes to build a circular rel-way around the two Kansas Citys, and also a switch leading to the large man-ufacturing establishments in the Fifth and Sixth wards.

Parsons.-In accordance with the compromise arrived at between the cit of Sedalia, Mo., and the officials of t of Sedalia, Mo., and the officials of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, by which one-half of the general offices are to be removed to Parsons, the change has been accomplished and 235 closes are busity engaged in catching up with accumulated work.
